How to Get to Kita-Senju Station

Directions from Narita International Airport

The quickest way is to take the Keisei "Skyliner" train (reserved seats; must be purchased at the airport train stations) from Narita airport. Get off the Skyliner at Nippori station, and then catch the JR Joban line bound for Kita-Senju. Approximately 50 minutes in total.

Another option is to catch the Keisei "Narita Sky Access" line at Narita airport. Get off the train at the Oshiage station, and then take the Tobu Skytree line bound for Kita-Senju. Approximately 70 minutes in total.
